Brithers Scots.

There was a large attendance of members of the Scottish Thistle Club at the weekly meeting last night, some coming from places so far apart as Puuloa and Mount Tantalus. Several friends of the club and reporters were also present by invitation. A special call had been issued for this meeting, on account of the contemplated departure from town of A. Garvie, a much valued member, as well as a presentation to be made to Thomas Black, a member who had within a week married a fair and talented daughter of "Auld Scotia." Chief Logan, who presided with the support of Chief Loring, stated to the meeting that Mr. Hutchinson the sculptor, who is an honorary member on account of kind favors to the club, was going to San Francisco by the Australia the next day, and a member introduced a visiting Scotsman, Mr. Edmunds, who was leaving for a visit to the old country by the same steamer. In the course of the evening a pretty German clock was presented to Mr. Black to regulate his matrimonial career, and the members who were leaving were bidden goodbye in speech and song redolent of the heather. Very well written essays upon the old land, and the love borne for it by its children and even their descendants, were read by Brothers Black and A. C. Steele. Other members contributed old Scottish songs, a collation was served, and the whole evening was one of the most pleasant in the history of the club, now in the fourth year of its existence. The club leases the hall over Tracy's store. It has the nucleus of a library and maintains a reading room supplied with the leading American and English papers and magazines.

Boy's star waist "The Mother's Friend," new and elegant designs only $1 each at McInerney's.

SEQUAH'S

WORLD

RENOWNED

REMEDIES.

To SEQUAH, Sir: I feel it my duty to inform you of the benefit I had derived from the use of your Remedies, Sequah's Cure and Oil. I have been troubled with Rheumatism ever since 1862 and since 1887. I have spent all I could earn in trying to cure myself but failed. I came to you in April unable to walk without the aid of sticks. The pains in my legs being fearful; I was treated by you in presence of several witnesses and received great relief. I continued the use of your remedies using only four bottles of Oil and two of the Cure, and now I am cured of the Rheumatism, but my limbs have become stronger, it is now nearly three months since receiving your treatment, and I feel all right. I was unable to work for 1 1/2 year (18 months) before coming to you, and I have now been at work for over five weeks past. I cannot find words to sufficiently thank you for the good your visit here has done me. I am yours gratefully,
